U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY | Energy Efficiency & Renewable Energy

Wind Powering America

Photo from Nebraska Public Power District, NREL/PIX 16442

Photo by Becki Meadows, NREL/PIX 16962

Wind Powering America

Photo from Tennessee Valley Infrastructure Group Inc., NREL/PIX 12087

Wind Powering America is a nationwide initiative of the U.S. Department of Energy's Wind Program designed to educate, engage, and enable critical stakeholders to make informed decisions about how wind energy contributes to the U.S. electricity supply. Visit the Wind Powering America website for:

- Wind resource maps
- Installed wind capacity maps
- News
- Events
- Webinars
- Podcasts
- Success stories
- Lessons learned
- Other information resources.

www.windpoweringamerica.gov

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY
Energy Efficiency & Renewable Energy

DOE/GO-102012-3623 · July 2012

Printed with a renewable-source ink on paper containing at least 50% wastepaper, including 10% post consumer waste.